

Ad hoc support : ARIBAD network

A training and research network for resistant rice in Africa

ABSTRACT

During this 6-week mobility of Pr. Adam Bogdanove in Montpellier (France) and in West-Africa, the primary objectives that we aim to achieve will be to :

- Conduct lectures and workshops to meet education and training needs at the African institution(s).
- Build regional strain collections for collaborative study.

Lay the groundwork for long-term collaboration including personnel exchanges for training and coordination.
